

Free San Francisco Seminars 2015-16

6:00 – 7:30 p.m. • Hospice by the Bay, 180 Redwood St., Suite 350, San Francisco

October 1 — Estate Planning for Singles and Same-Sex Couples

The law provides a default estate plan for every person, but it may not reflect your wishes. Create a plan tailored to your own life and priorities. For same-sex couples, changing laws may also impact your estate plan. Know the options for your financial and health care decisions, and ensure that your wishes will be followed after your death.

February 4 — The Life of Your Estate after Death: Probate and Trust Administration

Who decides what happens to your assets after your death and how does it work? Learn about choosing successor trustees and fiduciaries to implement your estate plan, and how to make choices to prepare for a smooth transfer of assets – large and small – to intended beneficiaries, limiting administrative hurdles, cost and heartache.

April 14 — My Life, My Choices: Planning for Future Health Care Decisions

Ensure your health care wishes will be carried out, even if you can't advocate for yourself. Learn how to document your choices, choose the right person to make decisions for you, and communicate your values and goals about medical treatment choices.

May 19 — Myths & Facts about Hospice Care

What is hospice? Who pays for hospice care? Is there a hospice facility? Is it time for hospice?

Join us for an informal and informative discussion of what hospice care really is and how it works.

Do you have questions about estate planning? Planned giving? Your will?

Each month on our website, our Planned Gift section offers new articles and interactive features that can answer your questions. We hope it will be a useful resource for you.

Reservations for each seminar are required

Visit www.hospicebythebay.org • Call (415) 526.5580

See our website for additional seminars in Marin and Sonoma.

Hospice by the Bay is grateful for the time and expertise of Deb Kinney of Johnston, Kinney & Zulaica, LLP.